

Lens Robens Foto

MISS DOROTHY GLENN LANE

Miniature Book Jackets Reveal Librarian's Troth

Tiny hand made book jackets bearing the title "Dotty Marries" were presented to guests at a morning coffee yesterday at which Miss Clara Wendel, director of the Albertson Public Library, was hostess.

Further information on the inside flap disclosed that this "new book in the Dotty Lane series tells of her romance with Dr. Norman Miller, and of their wedding on Christmas Day."

Miss Dorothy Glenn Lane is head of the children's library and is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James G. Lane of Raleigh, N. C.

Guests were invited to call at Miss Wendel's home for the announcement coffee between the hours of 11 a. m. and 2 p. m. and were greeted at the door by Mrs. John G. Arko.

Fall flowers and foliage decorated the refreshment table and the Mmes. Dan L. McKinnon and Grady Page presided at the coffee urn.

The hostess was assisted in serving by her sister, Mrs. R. M. Thoren and the Mmes. Clyde Williams and E. L. Schacht.

HAS LIBRARY DEGREE

The bride-elect received her early education in the public schools of Garner, N. C. She was graduated from Meredith College in Raleigh and did a year of graduate work at the University of North Carolina where she received her degree in library science.

Following graduation Miss Lane was connected with the children's department of the Public Library in Washington, D. C. before coming to Orlando to make her home.

Dr. Miller, the son of Mrs. Joseph Miller and the late Mr. Miller of Toledo, Ohio, is now making his home in Orlando. He attended public schools in Toledo and was graduated from Waite High School, after which he served in the United States Coast Guard from 1942 to 1946.

He was graduated from Everett Junior College and completed his education at Western Reserve Dental school in Cleveland, Ohio.

Dr. Miller recently passed the Florida State Dental Board and is currently associated with Dr. J. B. Preston in this city.

Complete plans for the wedding which will take place in Raleigh, will be announced later.

12/53